CODE OF CONDUCT
ST. JOHN'S ROWING CLUB

Club members have a responsibility to participate in a professional, disciplined manner, demonstrating all those aspects of good sportsmanship expected of members of St. John's Rowing Club.

Members are expected to understand, and indicate by their signature that they agree to abide by, all rules and regulations instituted by the St. John's Rowing Club for its members.

- Membership fees are due yearly at the rate and date set by the Board. Membership privileges, which include participation in club activities, may not commence until all fees are paid.
- Harassment (overt or insinuated) of any kind – physical, emotional or sexual – of members by members, coaches or other club personnel is forbidden. Rowing Canada's harassment policy will be strictly enforced.
- Alcohol and illicit substances are not permitted at any time, day or night at the boathouse or the boathouse grounds. Members are not permitted to participate in club activities while under the influence of drugs or alcohol.
- Members must obey all rules of the Safety Committee of SJRC.
- The head coach will be informed of any discipline of members. Any discipline of a member is to take place in an open forum, and the member must be permitted to have a fellow rower or another coach present. The member can choose who this additional person is to be. The disciplinary procedure will require that coaches use whatever form of discipline is appropriate, up to and including loss of membership. The coach is then required to inform, within 24 hours, the head coach of the discipline. A coaches' meeting will be called within 7 days to discuss the issue and a letter will be forwarded within 7 days to the Board of SJRC for review.
- To travel with a team to Rowing Newfoundland, Rowing Canada or SJRC – sanctioned regattas, all members and their parents/guardians must sign a code of conduct, indicating their acceptance and adherence to the code of conduct for travel. Coaches will also be expected to sign this code of conduct for travel.
- Members will be informed that coaches agree to SJRC code of conduct. Members are expected to take, in a timely manner, any concerns or complaints about any matter relating to the club to the head coach, the Coaching Committee or to any member of the Board.
- Any violation of this code of conduct will be strictly dealt with by the appropriate committees of SJRC.
